My Families of ---

WRAY (RAY)--LEWMAN--GRIMES--DOWDELL--ENSLEY
PICKARD--LEAKE

With a great deal of satisfaction and pleasure, I have compiled these family records, which, to my knowledge and findings, are all that are available in my ancestry. It has only been possible through the help, advise, and co-operation of my parents, Earl and Fay Lewman Ray, my husband and family to whom I will be ever grateful.

DESCENDANTS OF HENRY B. WRAY

Wray, Ray—in the corner-a corner(as of a field or yard) or secluded place. (as found in a "Dictionary of English or Welsh Surnames")

100. HENRY B. WRAY

He was b. d. 3-24-1846 "aged about 45 years" according to the tombstone in a small cemetery north of West Union, Parke County, Indiana. He followed the occupation of a tanner and at the time of his death skins, tan bark, and leather in vats were included in his possessions. Stories passed from son to grandson relate that Henry Wray's father came from Ireland though no records can be found for proof of such stories. It is known that Henry's brother was Carson Wray who lived in Montgomery County, Indiana. Carson's descendants relate the father came from Ireland to Philadelphia as a stow-away and three sons, including Carson and Henry, went west to Pittsburg where they built a log raft and floated down the Ohio River to Warrick or Vanderburgh County, Indiana where they travelled overland to Montgomery County, Indiana. Records in the Court House in Montgomery County show a Henry Wray purchased 40 acres of ground in two tracts in the years 1830 and 1834. One tract was purchased by Henry Wray and Polly his wife. In 1837,40 acres of ground was sold by Henry Bell Wray and Mary Wray. A marriage record for Henry B. Wray and Mary Henderson married October 29, 1829 was found in Montgomery County, Indiana. No records were found in Montgomery County for Henry B. Wray after 1837. It is believed by this researcher that this is the same Henry as the Henry Wray that lived in Parke County in the early 1840's being married first to a Mary Henderson (nicknamed Polly) who died before Henry's move to Parke County. In the Parke County, Indiana Court House there is a record of marriage liscense for Henry B. Ray and Catherine McDaniels January 10, 1843. Henry's grandson David related this Catherine to be Catherine Watts. It is known that Catherine had two children, Nancy Ellen (m. Huffmire-no children) and James McDaniels, which indicates she must have been Catherine Watts married first to a McDaniels then to Henry Wray. The widowed Catherine Wray (or Ray) married Henry P. Arts May 15, 1856.

Elizabeth Dowdell 10-29-1868 She was b. 1-31-1848 d. 2-27-1937 His father having died while he was only two did not allow for much information to be passed down to future generations. Samuel was raised in the home of Andy Limeburger in West Union, Parke County, Indiana, while his brother David was taken to the home of relatives in New Market, Indiana. In his teen age years Samuel went to St. Louis where he travelled on an overland Ox Train a train taking supplies to soldiers to Ft. Larramie, Wyoming. He related many experiences of the trip including encounters with Indians. He was a farmer and merchant in a small grocery in Howard, Parke County, Indiana. When 22 or 23 years of age he lost one arm above the elbow in a thrashing machine. He is said to be responsible for dropping the "W" from the Wray spelling the name as Ray as it is now spelled. He said the "W" was not necessary to the sound.

DESCENDANTS OF MARK GRIMES

Grimes--Descendant of Grim (mask). The first element of names like Grimbold, Grimkell-meaning "fiercely bold". (Dictionary of American Family Names)

300. MARK GRIMES

b. 11-23-1799 d. 8-25-1852 m. Rebecca Pickard
She was b. 8-2-1800 d. 11-6-1866 Both are buried in a small family cemetery south of Sylvania, Parke County, Indiana. Mark Grimes was one of the main business men of the community in which he lived. He was quite an extensive land owner, some land being purchased with local product. A record of Land Entries in the Parke County Court House lists Mark Grimes as having purchased land from the Government in 1830 and 1831. He also was in the meat packing business making trips to New Orleans via flat boat and the river to haul loads of meat. In 1832 in the Parke County marriage records he is listed as serving in the capacity of Justice of the Peace, indicating a man of many varied abilities. The 1830 census record is the first mention of Mark Grimes in Parke County and it is believed he moved to Indiana from Tennessee between 1828 and 1830 as the first four children were born in Tennessee--the last four in Indiana.

DESCENDANTS OF MOSES DOWDELL

DOWDELL (Eng.) one who came from Dowdale (valley frequented by doves or does)

400. MOSES DOWDELL, SR.

Little is known of Mosses Dowdell or his wife Peggy Nail. He was thought to be Dutch or German, but some Dowdells have been traced back to Ireland, and though all seem to have come from Virginia, no connection has been made between the lines. The Dowdell family lived on Pass Run, about 3 or 4 miles east from Luray, Virginia. Most of the people spoke German and their religion was principally the old German Lutheran. After Moses Dowdell's death Peggy Nail Dowdell married a Mr. Rothgab.

THE FAMILY OF BARBARA GROVES DOWDELL

John RHOADS was an immigrant from Berne, Switzerland. He is presumed to have first settled in Pennsylvania, coming to Virginia in 1726. He was a Mennonite minister who, because of persecutions, left his native land, pursued by his enemies, and hid himself among the cargo of a ship to escape.

About 1766 the family of John Rhodes suffered an Indian Massacre which took the lives of John Rhodes, his wife and a part of his children. A daughter Elizabeth(then twelve) escaped saving the life of her baby sister, Esther. A son Michael was spared. Joseph Rhodes, the oldest son of John Rhodes, and two daughters married to GROVE brothers, Christian and Marcus, were living in their own homes at the time of the massacre, and thus escaped.

It is with this Marcus Grove and his Rhodes wife that our account is concerned. It is thought that her name is Susanna, but since Marcus married a second time a lady by the name of Susanna, the name of the first wife is not certain.

Marcus Grove was born in Holland about 1740. He is reported to have come to Altoona, Pennsylvania in 1749. Before the year 1756 he and his brother Christian moved to Shenandoah County (now Page County), Virginia. The oldest child of Marcus Grove and his Rhodes wife was David born August 11, 1761. Marcus Grove was a Mennonite. He did not believe in war, but he was a patriot and gave, in the supplying of food, substantial aid to the army.

"Shenandoah County, Oct. 27, 1781
This is to certify that Marcus Grove hath furnished one beef weight adjudged to three hundred and twenty-five pounds at two pence pr lb. to be paid with depreciation, for the use of the Continental Army.
Witness my hand 305 lbs No. 48"
Warrent in Shenandoah County, Claims in Va. State Library, Richmond, Virginia

David Groves son of Marcus married an Anna MUSSLEMAN on March 24, 1878. She was born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania daughter of John Mussleman. David, though born into a family spelling the name as Grove, spelled the family name as Groves, as did his four children. A daughter Barbara who married Moses Dowdell, Jr. is given in the Dowdell family account. David Groves died February 2, 1830 he was born August 11, 1761(calculated date).

The above is taken from extensive accounts furnished by Mrs. Nettie Dowdell Williams(now deceased) No. 405 all with source reference and proof.
